New Regional Librarian Takes Charge

As the student of the Bible College, he was given the charge of the Regional Library with it. The year Mr. Edwin C. Osburn came to a position of librarian at Arkansas Agricultural and Mechanical College, Moundville, Arkansas. Mr. Osburn claims Perryville, Arkansas as his home town. He received his A.B. from Howard College in Birmingham, Alabama in 1921. In 1925, he received his Th.M. from Southern Baptist Seminary in Louisville, Kentucky. He attended Crozer Theological Seminary in Chester, Pennsylvania and received his Bachelor of Divinity Degree in 1931. Mr. Osburn received his B.A. Degree in Library Science from the University of North Carolina in 1937. He did graduate work in sociology and economics at the University of Pennsylvania in Philadelphia.

Mr. Osburn was married to Miss Ollie Young of Guntersville, Alabama, on January 1, 1926. They are now making their home in Martin on Moody Avenue.

Another addition to the library staff is Mrs. Aneta Smith. Mrs. Smith is from Fulton, but is now making her home in Martin. She attended school in Fulton and held positions with the Armour Creamery and with National Fireworks, Inc. She is now a stenographer in the library office.

We are indeed glad to welcome Mr. Osburn and Mrs. Smith to the Junior College and hope they will enjoy their work with us.

The University of Tennessee Junior College was host to a conference for school board members on Wednesday, October 10, beginning at 10 o'clock. Paul Meek, executive officer presided. This meeting, one of the most important to be held on the local campus, was sponsored by the General Education Board of New York. It was designed to cover the counties of Weakley, Obion, Dyer, Gibson, Henry and Lake.

Music was by the Martin High School Band, under the direction of Ottis Parrish, and the welcome was made by Mr. Meek. J. Martin Adams of the Martin Board of Education, spoke on the attitude of school boards toward the betterment of educational conditions in the state.

Mrs. W. W. Harlin of Franklin, president of the Tennessee Association of Public School Board Members, stated the purposes of the conference. Problems of local board members were discussed by W. T. Lattimer of Union City, and J. B. Crenshaw of Newbern. Mr. Meek discussed the handbook for school board members in place of Dr. J. A. Thaxton of the University of Tennessee at Knoxville, originally scheduled.

A complimentary lunch at the college dining hall followed discussion and questions. At 1 o'clock in the afternoon a round table discussion was held by Burgin E. Dossett, state commissioner of education, department of education. Rev. O. A. Marrs had charge of the devotionals.

Mr. Meek sent out written invitations to all the school board chairmen in this section of the state, urging them to attend.

With registration complete at the Junior College, Gene Stanford, bursar, stated that total registration was just short of 200. That is, 195, to be exact, at the time last figures were available.

This marks a general increase over that of last year. One of the surprising things has been the number of boys registering this fall. But for the draft Mr. Meek was sure the original enrollment at the Junior College would be quickly restored. In another article the number of G.I.'s enrolled show the possibilities of increased enrollment from this source.

Following the freshman assembly on the opening Monday morning, where Prof. J. Paul Phillips made the main address, a number of other programs were held during the freshman week. These included the formal opening on Thursday of that week, and the student Christian program. The Rev. H. H. Boston made the main talk on September 27. Classwork began on Wednesday.

Mrs. Alice Davies, who for more than ten years has been reading themes for the English Department, and is rated about the best in the world at the job, now has charge of two sections of freshman English. Mrs. Davies will teach through the fall quarter and perhaps longer, if the need for her services continues.

On Thursday, September 27th from 2 to 6 p.m., the faculty members gave a tea for all students at the home economics building. Attractive fall flowers decorated the building.

The reception line consisted of the faculty wives and women members of the faculty. Mrs. Meek served tea with the help of Mrs. Reed and Miss Watkins. Delicious cookies, made by Miss Swindler and Miss Hawkins, were served with the tea.

Everyone enjoyed the tea immensely.

Miss Helen Hawkins, head of the Home Economics Department, served as one of the judges at the State 4-H Club Dress Contest, which was held at the Hermitage Hotel in Nashville on October 13. The other two judges with Miss Hawkins were Ida Anders and Iris Davenport of the University of Tennessee at Knoxville.

At the first meeting of the Lyceum, the following officers were organized for the coming year: to carry out the new book plan, Mr. Bowman, director of the Lyceum, was elected president.

On May 11, 1963, the same October 1962 Movie Guide by Robert K. Rinehart, Movie Guide, Inc., advised that the film was "not to be released" and that the film was "not scheduled for appearance." Mr. Kline returned to his audience and continued his monologue entitled "I Knew It. Mamma," and also a three-minute skit. This performance was an unusual one for "the student" and it was thorough.

A colorful portrayal of Old Buffalo Days will be presented for our entertainment by Reginald and Gladys Lamban, for most exponents of American Indian lore and dances, on Thursday, December 6 at 1 o'clock. This program features the lore, music and dances of our Western Indians before the disappearance of the buffalo. Today we imitate the machine and our life is inextricably interwoven with machinery. In similar manner the old life of the Indians was demonstrations of ceremonies and dances will be given.

Raymond Sheetz, popular magician, will be the first entertainment for us in 1946. He will appear on Monday, January 7th at 9:00 a.m.

It will not be "just another magic show." The stage settings, lighting effects, stage manner and illusions are said to be refreshingly original. The program, while a riot of fun is dignified and unique. Mirth and magic are blended by masterly hands into a show of striking entertainment value.

On Wednesday, February 6th at 1:00 p.m., Karl S. Bolander of Columbus, Ohio, will discuss "Hobbies the founder and president of the National Art Hobby Guild, and has earned the title "Art Hobby King." Mr. Balander believes everyone should ride a hobby for fun, to widen his horizon and to enrich his life. Suggestions for student hobbies will be given from some of the 784 listed hobbies of his organization.

John Sloan will present a program of liquid air demonstrations in the gymnasium on Friday, March 1st at 1:00 p.m.

Probably no product of the laboratory lends itself to more spectacular demonstrations than does liquid air. It piques curiosity, not only of the student, but of the technician as well. It definitely suggests unexplored fields in the sciences. Many experiments with liquid air will be performed during the period. John Sloan, demonstrator, is a former science instructor. Take heed, all ye Chemistry 111 students! Here's your chance to get a little "nollidge" outside of Mr. Campbell's class.

The Novelty Trio will appear on Monday, April 8th at 1:00 p.m. This is really a three-in-one program, featuring juggling and balancing, trained dogs and novelty music.

See Mae West, Stepin' Fetchit, Popeye and Dagwood perform such tricks as rope jumping and barrel rolls. football and basketball season. My senior year I was elected cheerleader again. Also that year I was elected president of the Home Economics Club for Gibson county and the Milan club. In the who's who last year I was voted to have the most beautiful smile in my senior class.

NAOMI PHILLIPS: She was the girls sports editor to the Hill-topper, the Selmer High School paper in her junior year. She was guard on the basketball team that won the district tournament held at Ramer, Tenn., in February, 1945. She played the accordion, sang and tap danced in the programs of the school.

PATRICIA PASCHALL was a member of the small class that graduated from Cottage Grove High School in 1945. She was a member of the basketball team. She was a class officer three years, participated in the class play, and was editor of her class annual. It seems impossible, but she was valedictorian when she was graduated.

L. P. WYNNS, Grove High School, Paris, Tenn. I did not do anything outstanding in high school. I went to school and studied and made average grades. I belonged to a few clubs, but did not do anything of importance. During the last summer I worked in a drug store. During my last year in high school I went to Memphis to judge some dairy cows. I made the highest score out of about one hundred and fifty boys.

JOHN "RED" WILLIAMSON: When I was one of the thousands of unimportant people in my high school years, I do have one thing of which I am proud and that is that although I changed schools five times, I finished in three years. I was never made class president or held any office because I did not stay in one place long enough. One thing I did profit from this was an ability to get along with strange people and to get acquainted. I also developed independence. During most of my two years away from home I was my own boss and had to make more decisions than most kids of my age, and anyone who knows me very well knows I do not like a lot of advice.

MARTHA NELL WARMATH, Gibson, Tenn.: The first real honor that ever came to me was when I was elected president of my junior class. In this same year I was elected high school queen by popular vote. My last year in school I was elected the prettiest girl in the senior class. The greatest honor came the night of graduation when I was presented a medal for citizenship in school. Last summer I worked as a "soda jerker" at the Gibson Drug Company.

GEORGE VIAR, Dyersburg, Tenn.: During his eighth grade year he represented Newbern Grammar School in the Dyer County Spelling Match. He took part in a "Stunt Night" play at Dyersburg High School in his freshman year. He also was in a "Stunt Night" play during his sophomore year. He was in the senior play called "Spring Green" during his senior year in high school.

BILLY ARMSTRONG is just one of those people who barely got through high school. He never played an important part in anything. He loved basketball better than anything, but did not get to play until his junior and senior years in the Ramer High School.

PEGGY HOPPER: I am from Alamo, Tenn. I entered the ninth grade there and all through high school was always taking part in the many activities. I was cheerleader for two years in Alamo and two years in Gadsden. Gadsden was the place I was born, living there for thirteen years before moving to Alamo. I have been in all skits and plays in the school.

I was elected many titles in the Who's Who contest. They were: cutest girl, friendliest girl, most beautiful, biggest flirt and second on the most sophisticated. I came out for basketball in my senior year and made the main team, being one of the forwards. I have aung in many programs in Alamo and outside. My first singing appearance and the greatest was when I sung over the Children's Hour from Memphis, WREC. I like all sports and try to take part in them.

KELLY ROARK, Huntingdon, Tenn.: I am just the average student. I attended high school at McLemoresville two years and two years at Huntingdon, Tenn., where I graduated. I participated in several sports at Huntingdon High. I played on the football and baseball teams, also on the intramural basketball team. At McLemoresville High I was a member of the Future Farmers of America Club.

MARTHA AILEEN PICKENS was just an ordinary girl in the Decaturville High School. She has been vice-president, treasurer, reporter and on a few committees in her class. She has been in all the plays. Two years she was a cheer leader and was in charge of the magazine aelling contest. At the close of school she got the citizenship medal. She was on the school council for two years.

My name is LYDA RONE. I attended my first two years of high school at Fairview and last two at North Side. I have never taken an active part in sports. I suppose I am just one of those people who go along in their slow, easy way doing nothing but a little studying occasionally. I have never taken responsibilities seriously so I was not very well qualified as an officer of my class.

My name is KATHARINE SCRUGGS. I attended Peabody High School at Trenton, Tenn. I was always counted as one of the gang. When I was a junior I was elected president of the Home Economics Club. I was one of those people who was always there, but I was never counted as an outstanding member. I was always among the few to help with the F. F. A. banquet. When it came to working I was always ready to pitch in and help.

JO ANN JORDAN: I am from Trenton, Tenn. I have been a member of a public speaking class and have given a number of readings. I have also been in several plays. I love to sew and have won many prizes in local and county fashion shows. I worked on the staff of the school paper my senior year. I was exchange editor and I enjoyed this work very much. I also enjoyed our senior play very much.

JEAN GLOVER attended Munford High School in Munford, Tenn. During her four years she was a class officer each year. In her junior year she was vice-president of the Beta Club and president of it the year following. She was president of her class in her senior year and she was also in the senior play, "Mr. and Mrs. America." She worked on the school annual. In the Who's Who contest she was elected the cutest girl, the best all-around girl and the friendliest girl.

CONFETTI

Chris, you like varieties, don't you? Even sailors from Penn.

Mary Clayton, you certainly had a busy week end, not bad!

Who plays "Hong Kong Blues" every morning before breakfast in Freeman Hall?

Well, Betty Rae seemed very happy. Could it be because that tall, lanky G. I. named Joe was home. Yes, it seems that happiness is just a thing called Joe when Betty is concerned.

Elsie C., can't you make up your mind? I'll have to admit that Gilbert is not bad. By the way, I heard you got a letter from him too. Nice work. I hope this is the real thing.

I wonder what Tiptonville's fatal charm is now. Little Anne and Gloria have been running home every week end. May be two guys by the names of Paul and Jess are responsible.

Poor little Dottie Lowe! She just has too many boy friends. She can't make up her mind. That's all right, Dottie, everyone you broke the record, didn't you?

Kathryn Thomas, why don't you consult your date book so you won't have two dates the same night?

Erie Kate, we hear you are beginning to like the state of Kentucky, or is it Jimmie?

"Poodie," when are you going to make up your mind about those sailors?

Why has Betty Turman decided to stay in Martin Christmas? Could it be that the Navy is offering complications?

Hey, Leon, what's wrong with women?

What happened to the ties of the Phillips' House boys. George, broke the record, didn't you?

Who is this boy that Betty Weatherford gets a book from twice a week?

Say, Vernon Lee, are you living up to your reputation??

Who is the champion rook player at Freeman Hall this year? That wouldn't be you, would it, Tickle?

Come on, Martha, 'fess up. Is it yours or Tiny's fault that you are never on time for breakfast?

Say, Bobbie H., just what was the attraction at home this last week end?

Fletcher, haven't you heard that "Early to bed and early to rise makes one healthy, wealthy and wise"? Better change your rising hour, hadn't you?

Latest notice in Freeman Hall—Lights out applies to Room 27—also to the red-haired occupant.

Have you by chance heard the deep, deep voice booming out in CHICKENS—HERE SIR?

COME ONE! COME ALL! U. T. J. C. CIRCUS COMING TO TOWN. SEE SUPERMAN AND THE VOICE!!! WATCH FOR ANNOUNCEMENTS LATER.

Why was Gwen so excited and happy on Monday? Could it have been the effects of the letters from the Navy?

Does Richard Sanders walk in his sleep? Is it because of love or his studies?

Say—What's this we hear about no dances this quarter and just "2" the whole year. Come on now—no dance, no study!!!

Anita and Shirley can now render "Conchita Banana" well enough to give it at assembly.

Faye and Evelyn, did you have a good time Sunday night?

Was Cannonball disappointed, Virginia?

Who are those boys from Dresden interested in around here in the first place?

Wonder why Robert Childress never ask any girls for dates? Could be he is waiting for that certain girl to come home?

Doris B. seems to be getting all up in the air about a certain boy on the campus. Who is he, Doris? You had better watch out for the Navy.

Say, did everyone see Lisette (O'Rourke) Moore. Seems as if married life really agrees with that gal!!

We are sorry to hear that Mary Lake is in Memphis this week for a week of treatment. She is expected back in school about the 21st of October.

Tell us Leon, which is it, Martha or Katherine?

I wonder what was so interesting in Milan last week end. Could it have been that "Babba" Fields was at home? Ask Sara Seay!

Martha Dorris must still be in fine condition; they allowed her to return to school after spending the week end in Bolivar.

"That beautiful romance between Bogle and Christenbury seems to have bloomed again"—Eh??? What's that??

Has anyone noticed how loyal Glen Lewis is to our dear ole school?? She has orange streaks in her hair!!

Doodle, is the sergeant rating first in your little ole heart??? Sounds good.

Mule, you leave these little ole sweet gals alone—Understand??

So you got lost, Pouncy—now who's going to believe that?

Bess, you must learn not to make two dates for the same night. Complications could set up.

Has anybody seen Nellie's new rings? Faye called: "I'm go—I heard T. C. Karnes left for the Army Monday. Could that be the reason "Peg" Goodwin looks so sad.

There are two sophs that discovered chemistry is very interesting. H2O2. [Notice the new blondes?

ATTENTION GIRLS—James Lane is already taken so stop the wolf howls.

There seemed to have been a beaten path to a certain town boy's house this last week. Geo. Harrison is the lucky boy.

So comes the dawn, and there on Freeman Hall steps ye shall find our "Romeo and Juliet."

Phone rings: Evelyn called—"I'm going to B. T. U." Phone called: "I'm going to B. T. U." Phone rings: Faye called: "I'm going to church." Phone rings: Virginia called: "I'm going to church." Car drives by "Guess we'll go to church, too."

I love you; I miss you. See you December 1st.

It seems that Charles Butts has taken a fancy for a certain little red head in Reed Hall. Better go easy there, Charles and Chris!!

Last year Ruth Edenton had a MALE on the campus, but this year she has MAIL.

Hey, Katherine Thomas, did that spider get you in his webb the other Sunday night?

"I'd probably have to push him in first to get in at the door."

Charles or Charles? Just ask Erie Kate!

Wonder why Catherine Scruggs and Virginia Ingram were so happy when they returned to the dormitory Sunday night. Could their ride back to school have had anything to do with it?

Martha Ann, how did you rate that young man Sunday afternoon?

Why is it that Lyndois Terry has so much trouble with girls wanting to go with him?

Did Katherine Thomas scare her Romeo back home? Slow down and don't send the boys back to mamma.

I wonder why Carrol follows Marilucie around!!!

Girls, we must have something to hold B. Patrick's interest.

Oh, my kingdom for a pretty red sweater like "Bubba" Bivens wears.

I wonder why Joy Wren thinks Crockett Mills is such a fine place?

Harold McLean's watchword is "Oh, Dots all right."

The "Ag" boys are really interested in clean up committees these days, aren't they, Sanders?

Joe White seems to be dividing his interests rather unevenly between Mr. McMahan's chickens and a certain soph girl.

Now we know why Henry Williams is so allergic to U. T. J. C.

Girls. 'Tis that extra-special girl at home, eh Williams?

We are very glad to have Majorie Midyett on the campus lately. I happened to be eavesdropping when she told about her first English class at Peabody. Seems that the teacher, who was a classmate of H. H. Kroll of U. T. J. C., gave a fine lecture on his wonderful books. She also told about the Book Club of which they were both a member and how Mr. Kroll advised them of the writing. He would say "It is good but it won't sell." And sure enough it wouldn't. Of course Midyett felt quite at home in that lecture since the teacher told of someone she knew quite well.

How is your man, Diana?

Gwen, I'm going to be very disappointed if you don't latch on to a certain S. A. E. pen.

Regina's Sunday night pastime is reading and explaining jokes to Viar. What would "Red" say about that?

Three dates in one night are too many, Joneal. You know who that reminds us of, don't you?

Geneva, why are you so happy? Could it be that a certain sailor is coming home December 1st. Are we supposed to expect you to come back to U. T. J. C.?

WANTED: A girl or girls to talk to George Viar from the hours of 6:30 p.m. to 7:30 p.m. Reply to Box 35.

Has a romance sprung up between King Robinson and Queen Burton?

How is it that Martha Abbott rates an Armstrong heater even in the early fall.

Doris Ragsdale and Billy Pritchett sure do make a cute couple. Nice going, Doris. Another cute couple on the campus is L. P. Wynns and Polly Wilson.

Bubba Fields sure had a cute sister and we don't mean maybe. We hear that she sure has a good looking fiancée too.

E. T., we miss your staying over at the Dodd House.

Janice F. and Larry Wyatt sure seem to have it bad. That's O.K. We envy you both.

Lyda Rone sure is wearing a pretty ring on the third finger of left hand. Could he be Army?

Betty Hopper it sure must be nice working at the book store where you can get Sanford's letters early. He's Joanne's brother we hear.

That's all for now, we hope you like the column and won't forget us next time.

VARIED LYCEUM PROGRAM

be the appearance of the Charm Quartet on Tuesday, April 16th at 9:00 a.m.

The program includes solos and duets by all the performers with special musical arrangement. All of the four young artists have appeared with various radio networks as well as with many theatres, including the famous Chicago Theatre, where they were an outstanding success.

These lyceum numbers are carefully chosen and planned to fill in the schedule at the Junior College by Mr. M. P. Bowman. Please try to be present at all these programs, and let us welcome these artists to our school.

Faculty Student Mixer

Saturday night, September 29 a party was given by the sophomore class. It was opened with a short program. Bess Morrison gave a reading, Sara Seay did an acrobatic ballet and Rose Oliver played several popular numbers on the piano. After the program several games were enjoyed. During the nitrmission refreshments were served and afterwards everyone danced.

Gee! We certainly had fun!! Everybody got to know everybody else before the night was over (that was the purpose of the party, you know). All that did not go missed a good time.

Home Economics Club

The Home Economics Club held its first meeting on October 1, 1945, in the Home Ec building, with fifty-five present.

The meeting was called to order by the president and the minutes were read and approved.

Miss Swindler welcomed the freshmen into the club.

The social for this quarter was discussed and the president appointed the following committee to work on this: Celine Pitts, chairman, assisted by Helen McGowan and Mary Lake.

The second meeting of the club was held on Monday, October 15 in the Administration building. Erie Kate Porter had charge of the program which consisted of talks by Mary L. Johnson, Celine Pitts, Carolyn Burton and Betty Hopper and a solo by Peggy Hopper.

The president appointed a committee to be in charge of decorating the stage for assembly. Sarah Seay is chairman and Cora DeBerry and Regina Presnell will serve with her; and a program committee of Diana Thomas and Kathryn Scruggs. The club decided they would have a party in the form of a carnival on November 17th.

The officers of the club for this year are: President, Joanne Smith; Vice-President, Erie Kate Porter; Secretary-Treasurer, Celine Pitts; Reporter, Carolyn Burton; Pianist, Carolyn Stoval; Sponsor, Miss Nina Swindler.

SPORTS

Intramural competition hasn't gotten started very much yet, but there is a good possibility that it will soon and there should be plenty of competition this year and seems just as enthusiastic.

Peggy Goodwin from Trezevant has been chosen for intramural manager and we all know that Peg will do everything she can to make this a successful year for intramurals, so lets everyone pitch in and help and start the competition getting hot.

Last week the various teams met and elected their captains, which are as follows:

Red—Joanne Smith.
Blue—Dottie Lowe.
Yellow—Helen Burns.
Orange—Ruth Edenton.
Brown—Doris Ragsdale.
Green—Joy Wren.
White—Maurine Fuqua.
Black—Sarah Seay:

The first games scheduled for girls are horseshoes, shuffleboard and archery.

At The Gym

Victory is a sure thing this year for U. T. J. C. This should be the greatest year U. T. J. C. has had since we were dragged into the war. The war was fought for the freedom of all people so that they could enjoy sports that some of the war lords thought was a waste of time. We, the United Nations, won the war and now we can enjoy all this world affords.

As yet, we have not organized for intramural activities this year. We are expecting to do so very soon. U. T. J. C. is going to be proud of its basketball squad this year, for we have several of the outstanding players of the state.

There are several veterans who have entered this college who are (shall we say) supermen. They should excel in various activities offered them. They are the fellows who appreciate living and the limited activities coached by by Mr. Thompson instead of the harsh command of a sergeant or a shavetail.

Through the year let's all strive to make this the greatest year of sports U. T. J. C. has ever known and remember, "When the One great scorer comes to write against your name He writes not that you won or lost, but how you played the game."

Joe Hamm,
Phys. Ed. Major.
